

COMMUNION SERVERS Guidelines

- Time: During the morning service
- Duties: Serve the elements to the congregation
Elder in charge should assign servers to areas
- Sunday: There are nine servers
8 serve the congregation
One serves the choir

Please come forward when the minister calls you

The elder in charge should notify each server which area to serve (see below)

Please stand closest to the area you will be serving

The serving minister will give each server a plate with the bread, and a cup tray.

Wait for each server to get the elements, then go to your designated area.

Four start in the front – two on either side

Four go midway back – two on either side

If the choir server finishes early, go to the balcony or

If four finish early – go to the balcony

Serve the bread first, wait briefly, then present the juice tray. Let each person serve the next person in the same way – serve the bread, then the juice.

Go to the back of the church when finished with your section.

When all are finished serving, go forward to the front of the communion table. The minister will take back the bread and juice trays.

The minister will serve each server the elements. Stay for the concluding prayer after he has served you, and then return to your seats.
